WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

Throbs From the Heart.

Symbol of death as star of the East.
Again we lendeth the pictures of death.

Thru' the gloom of time, in the dimmed dawn,
That mystically breathes of the Christ Child birth.

D, magical sheen of this glowing hour,
O, golden path of the worn sweat moon.

C, ethereal grace shooting bolts
of grace.

All follow the scroll that heeding is death.

A season of goodness of Pea & corn.

A season of prayer, communion and dreams.

Living beauties are reborn with a feast of home.

Burning souls are reborn with a flame that glows.

As aspirational fire, a noble flame that glows as infernally bold warmly dim.

The shadow hours of death, in heat.

Join the sombre dead moments in a silent hymn.

For the world mourns, thine

spirit.

Transported souls are scattered to the stars.

He was created, made, but looks like death.

He is still his forever. He never grows old.

Gold Leaf Club.

One of the most pleasant events
was the entertainment of the Gold Leaf girls in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graver. There was a welcome exchange of gifts and a hearty social gathering. Mrs.
Mrs. Grace Brooks assisted the hostess in the duties of the evening. The watch party of benevolent coterie of pleasure seekers will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Corren.

MISS Williams Hostess.

One of the prettiest informal events
of Tuesday was the luncheon courtesy of the Country club with Miss Mary Clay Williams as hostess.
Miss Williams found pleasure in communicating to the girls in home from college and universities for the holidays. Red and green were the colors shown. Unshaded red candles were used and a miniature Santa Claus was given each guest as a favor.

Luncheon Courtesy.

Mrs. Thomas D. Lyons entertained at luncheon Tuesday in her home complimentary to Mrs. M. J. Delaney. Christmas prevailed in the decorative effects and the menu.
Besides the hostess there were Mrs.
Delaney and Miss Irene Delaney.
Mrs. E. F. Connolly and Miss Gertrude
Connolly, Mrs. Martin Moran
and Miss Margaret Moran, Mrs.
George Coyle and Miss Carmen
Coyle.

Christmas Greeting and a Word of Thanks

Of course we wish you A Merry Christmas and all the good things that wish entails, but chiefly we wish to thank Tulsa for her gift to us. It did not come in the form of a package nor was it wrapped in a box—It was simply the Good Will and Patronage of our "Home Town Friends" which has caused our business to grow and prosper during the past year. We appreciate your friendship and we want you to know it.

We hope that during the coming year our policy of Courtesy, Quality and Service will not only hold fast the old Friendships, but will bring us many new ones. Again we thank you and wish you a Merry Christmas.

ORGATONE HAS DONE HIM. I suffered and took medicine for five years and did everything a man could bear of trying to get rid of my troubles, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Orgatone treatment. After taking five bottles of this medicine, I am now a well man and I have gained 18 pounds.

"In the above remarkable statement was made a few days ago by A. W. Crawford, proprietor of the Texas Cafe, at 202 South Jennings Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. Crawford lives at 412 South Jennings Avenue and has a world of friends in both Fort Worth and surrounding territory. In relating his experience with Orgatone treatment, Mr. Crawford said:

"I think stomach trouble, which came on me five years ago, was the beginning of my bad health. At that time my digestion was so poor I seldom cared to eat food enough to keep me up. Well, I admit I had read a lot about Orgatone in the papers, but I never thought very much about it until one day I read of a party who had suffered like I had and had received very beneficial results from its use. I ordered a bottle and began taking it. I have taken five bottles and I don't feel like the same man. I have improved in every respect. I am stronger and more energetic. I am no longer nervous. I sleep like a top, my appetite and digestion are good and I have gained 18 pounds. I wouldn't be back like I was for anything in the world. I can eat anything I want and my wife seems to agree with me perfectly. Just for instance, meats and vegetables of any kind agree with me perfectly now, in fact other things I never dared to touch before and they seem to agree with me in fine shape. I certainly do recommend Orgatone heartily and sincerely after the good five bottles of it did for me."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy, but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa by Boyce & Getman's Rexall store exclusively under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative.—Adv.

O. S. Duffendack, visiting relatives in Bartlesville.

APPLICATION for the use of Convention hall on the night of December 26 was granted the Sinclair & Hastings Co. by the city commissioners for the purpose of presenting a comedy.
